

06 Application Denials - Overview

When statements made on the application indicate ineligibility and are confirmed by the PI at the interview, deny the application using the following applicable program determination screens:

- AFED or AFPD for CA
- FSED or FSAD for FS
- MADA for MA

Deny the application at the time of interview or at any time after, when there is sufficient information and documentation to establish ineligibility. This applies to all eligibility items, even those normally requiring verification such as income and resources.

Deny the application immediately. Do not wait to obtain verification to establish ineligibility.
