

C LIBL/STBL Time Limit Extension - Overview

REVISION 45
(01/01/17 - 12/31/17)

After a budgetary unit receives the maximum countable months of CA for LIBL or STBL, they may qualify for a Time Limit extension.

The CA budgetary unit may be eligible for a Time Limit extension when all of the following apply:

- The budgetary unit has received 60 countable months of CA for LIBL or 12 countable months of CA for STBL.
- The PI or their spouse requests an extension verbally or in writing.
- No adult has a sanction for noncompliance with the Jobs Program during the household's final regular month of CA benefits and the final month of benefits is October 2017 or later. (See Jobs Program Compliance Example 1 and Jobs Program Compliance Example 2)

NOTE The final regular month is the month the household received their last CA benefit prior to any Hardship extension.

- All dependent children, in the budgetary unit, age six through fifteen, are attending school and meet the school attendance requirements unless the child is excused. (See LIBL/STBL Time Limit Extension School Attendance)

To continue to be eligible for the Time Limit extension the household must remain in compliance with the Jobs Program.

When a Time Limit extension is requested, follow the procedures in LIBL/STBL Time Limit Extension – Procedures.
