

.04 NA Student Eligibility-Exemptions

REVISION 11
(01/01/10 –03/31/10)

Effective 01/01/2021, see Urgent Bulletin emailed 01/14/2021 regarding a temporary student exemption.

An NA participant may meet the definition of student, but does not meet the criteria in NA Student Employment, NA Student Work Study, or NA Student Jobs - E&T. When this occurs, the participant may be an eligible student for NA when they meet any of the following exemptions:

- Under the age of 18, or over the age of 49.
- Participants receiving any CA benefits. (See CA Supportive Services)

NOTE When the student is receiving cash assistance key the CA Exemption Reason Code in the STUDENT EXEM field on SSDO.

- Meets the disability criteria for NA E&T Work Exemption.

NOTE When the student meets the criteria for an NA E&T Registration Exemption key the ET Exemption Reason Code in the STUDENT EXEM field on SSDO.

- Responsible for the care of a child under age 12 based on one of the following caretaker exemptions when the caretaker and the child are in the same NA budgetary unit:

A single-parent, enrolled full time and responsible for the care of a dependent child under age 12, regardless of adequate child care.

A participant responsible for the care of a dependent child over age five and under age 12 for whom adequate childcare is not available.

A participant responsible for the care of a dependent child under age six.

NOTE When the student meets the criteria for caretaker of a child key the CH Exemption Reason Code in the STUDENT EXEM field on SSDO.

WARNING

When both parents are in the home, the student must provide a majority of the care to receive the caretaker exemption. When both parents are students, only one NA participant may qualify for the caretaker exemption.
