

J NA E&T Participant Allowances

All NA E&T participants are entitled to a participant allowance. This is a reimbursement for costs incurred by the participant for expenses necessary to program participation. (Also see NA E&T Dependent Care)

E&T staff are responsible for authorizing and paying participant allowances as follows:

- The participant allowance amount is paid for each E&T participation period of four weeks.
- The allowance is limited to six participation periods during a 12 month period.
- The allowances are not countable as income.
- Eligibility for the allowance is determined by Jobs staff.

E&T participants must be reimbursed for necessary E&T participation related dependent care expenses.

E&T staff are responsible for authorizing and paying dependent care payments.

Participation in E&T activities includes a payment for dependent care assistance. The payment amount is limited for each four week period of E&T participation activities.

WARNING

Mandatory participants who are currently included in a CA budgetary unit ARE NOT eligible for the dependent care reimbursement.
