

E Food Stamp Budgetary Units In Eligible No Pay Status

Apply the following to FS categorically eligible budgetary units in FS eligible no pay status:

- A budgetary unit remains in eligible no pay status until one of the following occurs:
  - The budgetary unit reports a change making it eligible for benefits.
  - A change causes the budgetary unit to lose its categorical eligibility status.
  - The budgetary unit becomes ineligible for a reason other than income or resources.
  - The approval period ends.
- When a reported change makes the budgetary unit eligible for benefits, when currently in an FS eligible no pay status, apply the following:
  - An interview is not required.
  - Eligibility begins the month following the month the change is reported. (See Benefit Increases-Overview)
  - Verify the information BEFORE effecting the change.
  - See Effecting Benefit Increases)
- The budgetary unit is subject to reporting requirements and must comply with all FS eligibility requirements.
- Otherwise mandatory participants are subject to E&T Work Program requirements.
- The budgetary unit may submit an application for renewal. Treat the renewal like any other budgetary unit renewal.
