What must be reported for CA for Standard Reporting?

For CA, any of the following must be reported when the budgetary unit is subject to Standard Reporting:

- Changes in address and any resulting changes in shelter costs
- Changes in dependent care expenses
- Changes in deprivation of a dependent child
- Changes in income
- Changes in child support expenses for any of the following:

A nonparticipant parent of a minor parent, when living together. (See Minor Parent for additional definitions)

A nonparticipant stepparent.

NOTE For CA, child support payments are not required to be court ordered.

- Changes in marital status
- Changes in participants living in the household
- Changes in the PI\(g\)
- Changes in resources
- Changes in school attendance for children age six and older

NOTE Children on break are still attending school when they intend to return to school after the break

Change Reporting Time Frame – Standard Reporting

At the interview, the participant must report any changes that have occurred from the application date through the interview date.

After the interview, changes must be reported with all of the following guidelines:

- No later than the tenth calendar day of the month following the month the change occurred.
- For Tribal TANF, changes occurring after the approval must be reported within ten calendar days of the date the change becomes known to the budgetary unit.
- When the reporting deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the reporting due date is extended to the following workday\(g\).

When verification is needed, the participant must respond to the notice requesting the verification by the due date on the notice. Failure to respond to notices requesting verification may cause benefits to be denied or stopped.

For instructions on how to report a change, see Reporting Changes - Participant Responsibilities.

Procedures

For procedures about working changes, see When to Effect Changes and Working ACTS Alerts.
