

I IPV – electronic Disqualified Recipient System (eDRS)

REVISION 46

(01/01/18 - 12/31/18)

The electronic DISQUALIFIED RECIPIENT SYSTEM (eDRS) is a national tracking system designed to facilitate the exchange of disqualified NA participant information between states.

The eDRS is the single, most comprehensive and timely resource for Nutrition Assistance (NA) disqualification record keeping. The eDRS provides a centralized database for electronic submission storage, query and retrieval of NA disqualification records across all 50 states and three territories in real time.

(See IPV - Administrative Disqualification Procedures - Local Office Responsibilities for keying procedures)
