

C Filing an Application - Multiple GA Participants

When a married couple (including legally recognized common law marriages) apply, they may both be eligible for GA provided they both meet the GA Eligibility Factors Table. The following apply to multiple GA participants:

- Only one application is required for both participants.
- Keep only one case file for the budgetary unit.
- Determine the countable resources for both participants together. (See Resource Considerations)
- AZTECS determines the following when the correct information is keyed on STAC and STAA:

The countable income for both participants together. (See Whose Income is Budgeted)

The correct payment standard for two. (See State Assistance Payment Standards)

EXCEPTION

When more than one participant lives in the same residence, and they are not married, each participant must have a separate GA case.
