F State Assistance Budgeting Income - Anticipating Income

When a change is expected, anticipate the changes in income to project the appropriate income for the benefit month.

Obtain additional information from the participant, or source of income, when income from the 30-day period does not provide an accurate reflection of future circumstance. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Expected changes in the number of hours worked.
- Expected changes in the rate of pay.
- Unusually high or low checks received in the prior 30-day period.
- Budgeting Child, Medical, and Spousal Support Payments. (See Budgeting Support Payments)
