

.01 NA Representative - Disqualified Representative

REVISION 05
(07/01/08 – 09/30/08)

An NA disqualified representative is one who has been identified as knowingly being responsible for the following:

- Misrepresenting NA participants
- Misusing NA benefits

The disqualified representative may be ineligible to act as an NA representative.

When FAA has evidence that the individual is disqualified from being a representative, the disqualification lasts for one year. Send the C001 notice to the NA PI within 30 calendar days before taking the disqualification action.

A representative may be disqualified for Intentional Program Violation (IPV). Such a representative may ONLY be a representative while disqualified when FAA has determined that no other adult can be a representative.
