

.03 NA Representative - Multiple Cases

There is no limit to the number of cases a representative may represent.

When one representative has access to a large amount of NA benefits, FAA must ensure the following:

- The participant freely requests the help of the representative.
- The family is being represented correctly.
- The family is receiving the correct amount of benefits.
- The representative is using the NA benefits properly.