

.04 Office of Appeals Responsibilities - Arranging Medical Exams

The Office of Appeals notifies the local office when an appellant requests another medical examination. The Request for a Prehearing Medical Examination (UA-042) form is sent indicating the need for a medical examination to be scheduled.

Return a copy of the UA-042 to the Office of Appeals providing the information about the scheduled exam. (See Office of Appeals Address) Place the original UA-042 in the case file\(g\).

The examination may be scheduled with a doctor chosen by either FAA or the appellant. The doctor must be a medically qualified source\(g\) who accepts the standard compensation amount from DES.
