Change: Money Transfer Apps

EFFECTIVE DATE: For determinations completed on or after 07/01/2024

A participant may utilize money transfer apps to send and receive money from family, friends, businesses, or employers.

Money transfer apps include, and are not limited to, any of the following:

- Apple Cash
- Cash App
- Chime
- PayPal
- Venmo
- Zelle

Funds may be transferred to the participant's money transfer app from anyone's bank account or money transfer app, prepaid card, debit card, or mobile check deposit.

When there are funds on the participant's money transfer app, determine the source of those funds.

When funds in the participant's money transfer app are connected to the participant's bank account, see FAA4.A02 titled Financial Accounts - Overview for information on handling the resources.

When funds in the participant's money transfer app are from family, friends, businesses, or employers, determine whether any portion of the funds should be counted as earned income, self-employment income, or unearned income.

Do not count any portion received in a budget month as a resource when countable as income. Any remaining balance carried over to the following month is countable as a cash resource.

Change: Noncitizen Update

EFFECTIVE DATE: For eligibility determinations completed on or after 07/01/2024

The United States Department of Homeland Security has issued a new Class of Admissions (COA) Code known as Western Hemisphere Parole (WHP).

Individuals with the new WHP COA Code are paroled, on a case-by-case basis, for up to three years. These parolees do not have the same potential eligibility as other parolees who are granted parole under 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Naturalization Act for humanitarian reasons or public benefit. These individuals are Nonqualified Noncitizens and are potentially not eligible for NA and CA.

NOTE A Cuban and Haitian entrant (CHE) with the WHP COA Code is potentially eligible for NA and CA due to their CHE status.

When a nonqualified noncitizen provides USCIS documentation and is keyed IA in the CI field on IDCI, key all of the following on NOCS:

- COA field - when the participant has one of the following immigration statuses:
 - Battered Alien (BA)
 - Indefinite Detainee (ID)
 - Parolee (PA)
- STAT field – Use the F5 function key to access the list of NON CITIZEN STATUS CODES
- DATE field

NOTE AZTECS only requires the STAT and DATE fields on NOCS to be keyed when the participant is keyed IA in the CI field on IDCI and NOCS and has any other immigration status.

Policy reference(s) revised due to this change:

FAA3.D06B – Qualified Noncitizens

Prior Policy 07/01/2024

Added clarification to the AZTECS Keying Procedures for participants with a BA, ID, or PA immigration status. (Effective for all eligibility determinations made on or after 07/01/2024.)

Clarification: Timely NAX Benefit Issuance Date

The timely NA Expedited Services (NAX) timeframe begins the date after the receipt of the application. The verbiage within all of the following policies has been clarified:

- FAA2.A03 titled Requirements for NA Expedited Services (NAX)
- FAA5.J05 titled EBT Benefit Issuance and Availability
- FAA1.B04C titled NA Expedite Applications

Reminder: Home-Based Interviews

An Urgent Bulletin was emailed on 06/19/2024 informing staff that at the request of the Office of Inspector General (OIG), the Department of Economic Security (DES) OIG investigators perform home visits as part of their investigations.

There was a recent incident where a Family Assistance Administration (FAA) local office informed a participant that DES does not conduct home visits. FAA staff should refrain from informing participants that DES does not conduct home visits.

When a participant has inquiries concerning a visit from an investigator, they can contact the Investigative Support Unit (IST) by calling (800) 251-2436 or (602) 542-9449. IST confirms whether the investigator in question is employed by DES-OIG.

This UB is also to remind staff that home-based FAA interviews do occur and will continue to occur. FAA home-based interviews can be requested when the budgetary unit is experiencing certain hardships. Home-based interviews and interviews during nontraditional hours must be approved by an FAA Supervisor.

Participants may be unable to call or come into an FAA office during normal business hours. When this occurs, the participant contacts the Customer Support Center at (855) 432-7587 to arrange a home-based interview or to schedule an interview during the following nontraditional hours:

- Before 8:00 a.m. (Before 7:00 a.m. for a telephone interview)
- After 5:00 p.m. (After 6:00 p.m. for a telephone interview)
- During lunch hours
- Weekends

A participant may request a home-based interview or nontraditional interview hours for one of the following hardship reasons:

- The Kinship Care, Kinship Foster Care, or Legal Permanent Guardian participant chooses this interview option.

- The participant has a disability, is homebound, and is unable to conduct a telephone interview.
- There is no possibility of completing an NA Mid Approval Contact (MAC) online or by telephone.
- The participant has a valid reason for not being able to conduct a telephone interview or appear for an office interview.
- Other rare situations.

For more information on interview requirements, see FAA2.B01 titled Interview Requirements.
