

A Documented Verification

Documents are the primary source of verification. Documented verification is written evidence (also known as hard copy) originating from any of the following:

- An agency
- Organization
- Individual qualified to have knowledge of the required information

Key HC in the verification field when documented verification is used.

Ask the PI for names of collateral contacts when one of the following occurs:

- Documented verification is not readily available.
- Documented verification is not available within required time frames.

(See Requesting Verification at the Interview)