.02 First Level Reliability Documents

The first level of reliability documents provide verification of both identity and U.S. citizenship. The participant is not required to provide further documentation, unless it is questionable. These documents are as follows:

- U.S. passport (current or expired). A limited passport, which is issued for less than five years, is not acceptable as proof of citizenship.

- Certificate of U.S. Citizenship (N-560 or N-561) issued by the U.S. Department of Justice.

- Certificate of Naturalization (N-550 or N-570) issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS).
