

G Federal Emergency Services (FES) - Approval Periods

FES approval periods are as follows:

- Six months after the month of approval when the entire budgetary unit consists of FES participants.
- 12 months after the month of approval when the budgetary unit consists of both FES and full service MA participants.
- The end of the postpartum period when the budgetary unit consists of an FES S.O.B.R.A. Woman only.
- The end of the postpartum period when the budgetary unit includes a 1931 woman in her last trimester.

Do not continue benefits beyond the end of the FES approval period, under any circumstances, without a new application and eligibility determination.
