

G ABAWD - Regaining Eligibility

REVISION 39
(12/01/15 - 01/31/16)

When a participant loses their NA eligibility because they reached the 3-month limit, the participant can become eligible again when they:

- Work at least 80 hours in any 30-day period
- Participate in a work program for at least 80 hours in a 30day period
- Have a combination of work and work program participation for the 80 hours in a 30-day period
- Fit any category of exemption
- Enter a new 36-month period
- Work or participate in an employment and training program

The participant can also regain eligibility as many times as they meet an exemption category.

When a participant regains eligibility through work or an employment and training program and then becomes ineligible again, they can only get the one additional 3 month period of eligibility within the 36-month period. (See ABAWD Extension Period)
