

A Resources - CA

REVISION 47
(01/01/19 - 12/31/19)

Count the following resources when determining eligibility for CA:

- Resources of all eligible participants included in the CA budgetary unit, even when the participant is not required to be in the case.
- Resources of participants who are ineligible due to failure or refusal to comply with an eligibility requirement on their own behalf, or on behalf of another person.
- Resources of mandatory CA participants disqualified for Intentional Program Violation (IPV).
- Resources of parents of dependent children who are not included in the CA budgetary unit (BU) because they do not meet eligibility requirements (not as a result of failure or refusal to comply).
- Resources of nonqualified noncitizen parents with CA children and siblings.
- Resources of mandatory CA participants who are CA cash ineligible due to Unwed Minor Parent (UMP) policy.
- Resources of a qualified noncitizen sponsor for the noncitizen until the noncitizen attains 40 quarters of coverage or becomes a citizen.
- Resources with regard to a stepparent when both of the following apply to the stepparent:

The stepparent is not included in the CA BU.

The stepparent's spouse (the dependent child's parent) is in the home. (See Stepparent Resources)

HOPI TANF EXCEPTION

$3,000 of resources are excluded from the Hopi Tribal TANF program resource determination.

Key up to $3,000 of resources using the OF Resource Type Code on the appropriate screen.

CA EXCEPTION

Resources of the following persons are not countable:

- Stepparent sole and separate resources when the stepparent is not included in the CA benefit.
- Non-parent relatives who choose not to be included in the CA benefit.
- Legal guardians, unless they are a specified relative who is included in the CA BU.
- SSI recipients sole and separate property and any property that has been counted as a resource when eligibility for SSI was established. (See SSI Recipient Resources)
- Dependent children for whom deprivation does not exist.
- Dependent children ineligible due to receipt of foster care payments.
- Dependent children keyed with the BC Participation code on SEPA.
