

.02 30 Days From the Date of Interview

When the participant receives and voluntarily provides verification of income on the day of the interview, day one is now considered the day of the interview. (See Example 30-Day Period-From)

The 30 days of the most current information for any month in this situation can be determined using the AZTECS Monthly Production Schedule (AMPS) as follows:

- Use the Income Request Period Calendar (mm) in AMPS for the appropriate month.
- Locate the date of the interview in the INTERVIEW DATE column.
- Advance to the next day in the column to locate the day after the date of the interview.
- Locate the date that displays in the 30 DAYS PRIOR column next to the day after the date of the interview. This is day 30 of the 30 days of the most current information.
