

.02 Support Payments Out of the Home

Payments made for the care of dependents when they live outside the home of the participant whose income is deemed are allowable deductions (e.g., an aged parent in a nursing home). The participant must be able to claim the dependent for a federal tax deduction.

Key the verified amount.