

.10 IRS Report - Office of Program Evaluation (OPE) Responsibilities

The Office of Program Evaluation (OPE) is responsible for the following:

- Conducting central and local office reviews every three years to ensure compliance with security requirements.
- Completing an Internal Inspection report, using IRS Publication 1075 to report the findings of the review.
- Reporting findings that require corrective action, to the Program Administrator.