

F Time Limit - White Mountain Apache TANF

WMAT-TANF assistance may have an adult or minor parent as a participant. These budgetary units are eligible to receive assistance for a maximum of 60 months.

A month does not count toward the 60-month time limit when any of the following apply:

- A participant is a caretaker to one of the following:
 - A person age 60 or older
 - A disabled person
- A participant is unemployable due to a disability.
- A participant is a single custodial parent of a child under the age of 12 months.
- The unemployment rate on the Fort Apache Indian Reservation is higher than 50% as reported by the Bureau of Indian Affairs Labor Force Reports.
