

G Additional Medical Examination Requested by DMC

The DMC may determine that the medical information provided is not adequate to make a decision. In this situation, the DMC may authorize a further medical examination by one of the following:

- A general practitioner
- A specialist

When such a request is made, schedule another medical appointment in accordance with the DMC decision.

When the new medical information is received in the local office, forward it to the DMC for a decision.